COUNTY EXECUTIVE HOLLOWAY STATEMENT ON COUNTY BUSINESS

Milwaukee, WI – Milwaukee County Executive Lee Holloway released the following statement Monday evening:

“A number of inquiries dealing with my own personal matters – not the business of Milwaukee County taxpayers – have been pursued in recent days. To be clear, I do not use my office to comment on these matters.

“While there are some who want to use my personal holdings as a political weapon to challenge either the County Executive’s role at the Courthouse or in a political campaign, this office will not comment on personal matters. Instead, we will continue to serve as an open government and encourage any citizen or media outlet to reach out and ask questions about County business.

“I am committed to family, my neighborhood and my public service in Milwaukee County Government. I respond on behalf of Milwaukee County’s residents and taxpayers. There will always be full cooperation from this office as it relates to official County business.”
